CLASS HISTORY

Throughout the ages man has been constructing a marvelous citadel called the "Tower of Knowledge." People from many countries have traveled miles to view it and to mount its wondrous summits, to gaze out on the remotest landscape. In the year 1924 a band of young people started out from the city of childhood to see this astounding spectacle. For two years they traveled until finally they came to their destination. The tower is a magnificent edifice standing out against the rest of the world.

They entered this tower and found it to be very beautifully decorated. They climbed the many steps, including Algebra, English, Science and Latin, until they reached a platform called the Freshman stand. Their guide this far was Dick Lutz, and with a careful hand, he bade them look out the tiny windows and view the rest of the world. Everything seemed so jovial to them that they were anxious to be on their way. Again they mounted steps, but this time they were Geometry, History, English and Caesar. Each step found it a little more difficult to ascend, but yet they sought that eternal thing called "Wisdom"—the keynote of success. They reached a higher and a broader landing called Sophomore stop. With eager eyes they viewed the things their guide, Ned Donley, showed them, but still they had that desire to go on. They climbed and climbed and reached, as their reward, the Junior stand. Their leader, Dick Bear, a brilliant lad, was anxious to see the top, where 'tis said one can see the whole surrounding country through a small window in the side of the tower. So on up they went until they attained the high, elaborate and wondrous Senior rank. Ned Donley, the captain for this time, insisted that they look out at the distant hills. As each one glanced out of the window he saw not little valleys and flowing brooks, but hills and mountains, large rivers, and vast plains that meant considerable amount of work and thought to get under control. As they looked around them—life, the vast plains, seemed something near at hand which they must soon hasten to tackle.

Some will feel their duty calling them immediately, but others will go on, on and on up that tall, majestic "Tower of Knowledge" to learn more of the things of life. Their duty stands before them as the sun against the sky. Not everyone can reach the top, as some stop because of complete exhaustion while others stop with mere relief. Those that keep climbing will reach the more refined steps of this stately structure only to view the land, or life, with a calmer and more comprehensive vision.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1930, of Ashland High School, City of Ashland, State of Ohio, being of sound mind, do hereby make, publish, and declare this instrument to be our last will and testament, and we do hereby and herein give, devise, and bequeath our superfluous effects as follows:

We, the class of '30, leave to the students of old A.H.S. the memories, good and bad, of this departing class. May they, in years to come, think of our class as one who tried to add to the betterment of our school.

To the class of '31 we leave the first rows of the middle section of the seats of the John A. McDowell Auditorium, to be used during chapel and rallies.

To all under-graduates, Dick Lutz leaves directions for getting to school at 8:29½ in the morning and 1:14½ at noon.

To Harold Rader, Thelma Hoyt leaves her ability to get A grades.

To Betty Ingmand, Mildred Hoppes wills her place before the mirror in the girl's cloak room on the second floor.

To Bob Rybolt, Irving Wiley leaves his ability as an athelete and a book on "How to Converse with Women."

To Miss Mason—just to keep her sweet disposition as she has—we leave our French accent and gestures.

To John Matthews, Elizabeth Reider leaves her remarkable ability to argue.

To Charlotte Teeter, Marge Clark leaves her musical talent.

To Herbert Smith, Harold Bensinger leaves his bass voice.

To Fred Koehl, George Fluke leaves his dramatic ability.

To Heloise Moore, Mary Louise Moore leaves a year's subscription on "Good Housewife," and she especially recommends the following article in June number, "How to Overcome the Whims of Modern Youth."

And to our teachers as a whole, we give credit for all the honors we may have won in our class and sincere and heartful thanks.

To the Freshmen and Sophs, we do give, devise, and bequeath any odds and ends, not already disposed of, which they can add to their collection of material wealth and prosperity.

In closing, therefore, we wish to extend to the faculty and undergraduates of A.H.S. our deepest and most sincere smypathy for the loss of the class of '30.

Cecil Rogers '30

JUNIORS

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

In 1927 the class which is now known as the Juniors entered high school. It began its tempestuous career in the rooms 309 and 310 presided over by Mr. Flora and Miss Hunter on the third floor of the south wing. Howard Alsdorf was elected president and Mr. Flora faculty advisor. This year was uneventful except for the Junior-Freshman reception given by the class of '29.

The fall of 1928 found this class congregated on the same floor but this time in the north wing in rooms 327 and 329 with Miss Elliot and Miss Griest as home room teachers. Howard Alsdorf was again chosen to head this group and, together with Miss Griest as faculty advisor, they led it through a very successful year. The main event of the year was a cafeteria luncheon. The new gymnasium was filled with tables and was decorated very attractively with flowers and candles. This was the first undertaking of its kind to be attempted by any class and it was very successful. As a celebration at the close of such a prosperous year the class gave a Sophomore party.

In this year of 1930 the class of '31 is to be found on the second floor in the north wing in rooms 216 and 217 under the guidance of Mr. Avison and Miss Davidson. It has given another successful cafeteria luncheon very similiar to the former one, and also the charming class play "The Youngest." Robert Bowsher was selected as president and Mr. Avison faculty advisor.

During its journey so far in high school this illustrious class can boast that its members have been very active. The class of 1931 has one more year in which it may complete its course. May this one remaining year be as full and successful as former years have been.

JUNIOR HIGH

THE ASHLAND SCHOOL SYSTEM

Ashland High School is organized on the six-year plan. This involves a combination idea of the Junior-Senior high school plan of organization. The Junior High school movement had its beginning shortly before the World War, but rapid development in this scheme of organization has taken place largely during the past ten years. In the smaller cities and even in the larger ones the six-year plan has become very popular. It embodies not only the advantages of the separately organized units but carries with it the great advantage of economy.

While our high school has been organized as a six-year high school for several years, it was not chartered as such until a little over a year ago. We have in our school grades 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12. Grades 7, 8 and 9 are known as the Junior High grades while 10, 11 and 12 are known as the Senior High. Each high school group has its own corps of teachers and is housed in a separate part of the building. A great many departments of the school such as gymnasiums, laboratories, home economic and agriculture facilities are used by the school as a whole. There are 525 pupils enrolled in the Junior High school under the direction of 14 teachers. In the Senior High school there are 407 pupils enrolled under the direction of 17 teachers. There are 7 teachers who teach classes both in Junior and Senior High school.

The Hi-Y is an organization whose purpose is to create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character.

This year's program included a membership increase to thirty-five. With this number the Club could do much more than with a smaller number.

The Fog-Raiser in the Fall acquainted the new boys with the school activities and the spirit of the school. In March, the Club conducted a Find-Yourself Campaign during which the upperclassmen met industrial and professional leaders of the town for advice in planning a career. These activities along with the club activities have been a distinctly helpful influence in the school.

FUTURE FARMERS of AMERICA

Front Row:—Edwards Wells, Ernest Zehner, Roger Roberts, Harold Rader, Robert Welch, Howard Cease, Phillip Ohl, Herbert Cripe, Arthur Bone, Walter Swineford, Ellsworth Pifer, Denver Bettorf.

Second Row:—Denton Worts, Kenneth Fish, Marion Smith, William McAdoo, Leo Braun, Leo Lautzenheiser, Roger Hiller, Charles McQuate, George Boyer, Forest Shriver, George Basford.

Third Row:—Blake Myers, George Rickel, Myron Satler, Vernon Puster, Mr. Krill, instructor, George Cole, Kenneth Ebey, Clifford Abey.

The Hi-Ag Club joined the Future Farmers of America, a national organization, last year. This gives them a contact and means of exchange with other clubs. The purpose of the club is to promote greater interest in rural life. This is accomplished by teaching the most approved methods to put farming on a business-like and profitable basis.

The club's program includes sending various judging teams to contests, (the A.H.S. team placed fifth in the state apple-judging contest), seed-corn testing at cost for local farmers and a spray service. These activities give practical training to club members and are a real asset to the community.

Miss Mildred Adams organized the Junior Debate Club in the Junior high school at the beginning of the first semester in order to promote a greater interest in debate. The club has twenty-eight members. Their meetings were held the fifth period every Thursday during the first semester. Various subjects were debated upon by the members of the club, each one participating in at least one debate.

DRAMATICS

MISS GRACE McADOO

The Dramatic Department, which had its origin in Ashland High School three years ago, has been progressing very rapidly within the last few years. Perhaps no one deserves more credit than Miss Grace McAdoo, head of the department for the standard of this organization. Under her supervision, the department has advanced until now it is one of the most prospering and successful in our high school.

Special attention is given to the study of dramatic art, plays, and the art of pantomiming. The real value of dramatics and a thorough appreciation of art is given to each pupil. Besides being quite instructive it is also entertaining. In its course there is a Dramatic class and a Dramatic Club. Plays are given and acting and theaters are the main topics studied.

Each year Miss McAdoo has added a new specialty to this department and in time to come there will be very few pupils graduate without a thorough knowledge of the course included in the Dramatic Department.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Front Row:—George Fluke, Darl Hulit, Max Esbenshade.

Second Row:—Cecil Rogers, Helen Leonard, Mary Louise Moore, Helen Louise Hess, Marjorie Clark, Harriet Welty, Gladys Denbow, Kathyrn Morr, Lucille Stentz.

Third Row:—Richard Bear, Catherine Neff, Gwendolyn Ogle, Betty Helbert, Bonnie Blue, Jean Weuthrick, Roberta Weil, Kathyrn Webster, Mildred Hoppes, Dorothy Gongwer, Ione Patrick, Harold Bensinger.

Fourth Row:—Irving Wiley, Harold Rader, Ted Brindle, Frederick Hitchcock, William Harris, William Peck, Richard Hess, Robert Bowsher.

The "Masquers and Mummers" was organized in 1928 composed of selected talent of the school. Its only presentation this year was "Charm," a three-act play directed by Miss McAdoo, who is also the sponsor of the club. The club is composed of thirty members.

OFFICERS

President—George Fluke.
Vice Pres.—Harold Bensinger.
Secretary—Gladys Denbow.
Treasurer—Harriet Welty.

CHARM

Front Row:—Harold Bensinger, Darl Hulit, Robert Bowsher, Ted Brindle, George Fluke, Irving Wiley. Marjorie Clark, Richard Bear not in picture.

Back Row:—Kathyrn Webster, Gwendolyn Ogle, Cecil Rogers, Mildred Hoppes, Mary Louise Moore. Helen Louise Hess, Harriet Welty, Gladys Denbow, Dorothy Gongwer, Betty Helbert.

The Dramatic Club, The Masquers and Mummers, presented the play "Charm" early this fall. The cast was well chosen and the play was an excellent presentation.

The play was enthusiastically received by a packed house. The technique of the performers demonstrated the diligent efforts of the directress, Miss McAdoo.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The final dramatic effort of the Senior class was the farce comedy "Tons of Money." It was a very fitting climax to the numerous dramatic presentations of this class. The cast was well chosen and each played his part in an excellent manner.

The play was under the direction of Miss Grace McAdoo, head of the dramatic department. The finesse and fine stage presence of the cast gave evidence of her very capable direction.

Bob Bowsher

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

Robert Bowsher, Charlotte Teeter, Sarah Donley, Howard Alsdorf, Jean Weuthrick, Elizabeth Ann Haynes, Monica Priest, Edwin McKellar. (Charles Campbell not in picture.)

"The Youngest" was a three-act comedy staged this year by the Junior Class. Miss McAdoo supervised and directed its production and the play received an unusual welcome by the public, The cast worked very hard and rightly deserved the honor which it brought them. The present Junior class has exceptionally good talent in its midst and a large amount of dramatic ability.

FRENCH PLAY

Glenn Watson, Darl Hulit, Charlotte Teeter, Raymond Leiter, Allen Gaetjens, Thelma Hoyt, Ned Donley, John Mathews.

The French play was very successfully presented this year in conjunction with the Band concert. The play in one act was centered around the activities in a French hotel, whose "interpreter" understood no English. Naturally there was a deluge of English visitors and many and varied were the complications arising.

It is rather difficult to present a play in other than one's native tongue. The splendid training and assurance of the cast reflect much credit on the directress, Miss Mason.

MUSIC

LOUIS E. PETE

The Music Department of Ashland High School is one which every pupil of this school and every citizen of Ashland should be justly proud. To Louis E. Pete, who has had charge of this department during the last six years, goes the credit for its progress.

The High School Band, Junior Band, Orchestra, Junior Orchestra, and Glee Clubs in their performances give a fitting illustration of the success that has been made through his untiring efforts.

Not only has Mr. Pete developed these organizations to such a high plane, but also, he has interested the student body and the community, as a whole, in good music. Ashland is indeed fortunate to have her music department in such capable hands.

BAND

The Band, a fifty-three piece concert organization, has completed a very successful year. Concerts were presented at Ashland, Hayesville and Savannah. The talent of the members was ably demonstrated by the difficult class of composition given. These included all the better known National Band Contest numbers.

The Band played at all the basketball and football games. The snappy marching back of Farnsworth, our super-drum major, and the peppy marches certainly helped inspire the team and its backers.

THE ORCHESTRA

The Orchestra, composed of forty-five members, under the leadership of Mr. Pete has established several "firsts" this past year.

It presented symphony numbers for the first time. The first movement of Schubert's Unfinished Symphony and the Andante Movement of the Beethoven Fifth and Wagner's Overtures to Rienzi and Der Muster singer were all played at the Winter Concert. This is very high grade music and of a type that Ashland High can be proud to present.

The orchestra's first out-of-town concerts were presented at Hayesville and Loudonville. Appreciative audiences expressed their approval of the programs.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Front Row:—Heloise Moore, Kathryn Semple, Catherine Weaver, Evelyn Miller, Pauline Long, Blanche Collins, Alzada Long, Verna Barrett, Eleanor Crowell, Kathleen Norris, Betty Helbert, Gwendolyn Ogle, Helen Leonard.

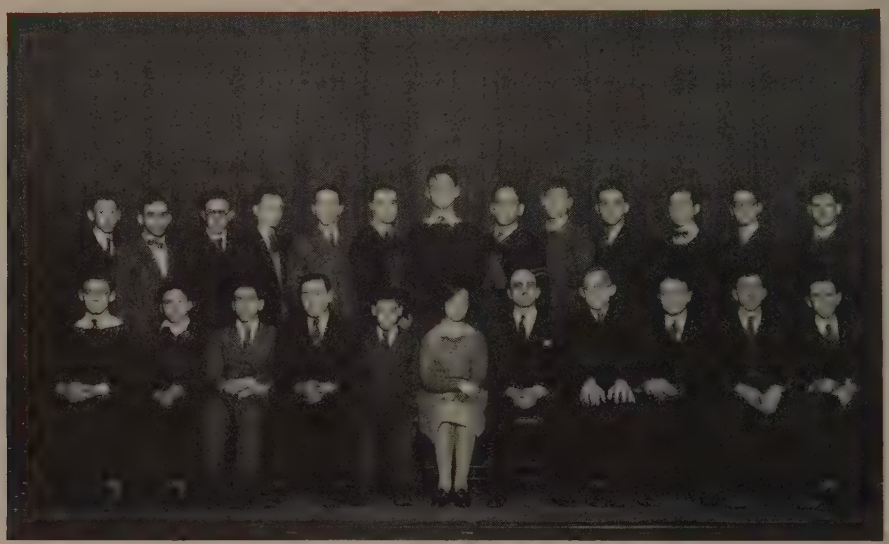
Second Row:—Dorothy Sharp, Nadine Shambaugh, Jean Weuthrick, Gladys Denbow, Harriet Welty, June Hartsel, Betty Martin, Helen Armstrong, Iva Fae Duncan, Lois Brown, Martha Hetsler, Elizabeth Rieder, Cecil Rogers, Catherine Neff, Frances Butts, Marjorie Clark.

Top Row:—Monica Priest, Marie Reed, Mary Alice Morr, LeVeda Roberts, Margaret Culbertson, Elizabeth Ann Haynes, Mary Louise Moore, Helen Louise Hess, Frances Strock, Evelyn Cooper, Annabel Glasner, Helen Brown, Betty Whitmore, Betty Scantleberry, Vinnie Stahl, Charlotte Teeter.

This year the Girls' Glee Club, with a membership of forty-seven, was highly commendable.

Their part in the operetta, "Once in a Blue Moon," and the Annual Winter Concert was very successful.

Some of the special numbers of the Annual Concert were "The Lamp in the West," "Croon, Croon, Underneath the Moon," and one that was particularly enjoyed was "Il Trovatore," with lighting effects which made it very dramatic and effective.



BOYS' GLEE CLUB

Front Row:—Irving Wiley, Richard Lutz, Edwin Wells, Martin Byers, George Marble, Margaret Ralston, Mr. Pete, Paul Bell, Donald Emerson, Wayne Strine, Harold Poorman.

The Boys' Glee Club has had a very successful year. Mr. Pete has expressed great satisfaction over the fine performances they have given. In the years previous, the Girls' Glee Club has been conceded an edge over the boys' (though not by the boys) but this year at the Winter Concert, competent judges declared that one was as fine as the other.

The Club consists of twenty-three members who are all enthusiastic workers. As over half the members are underclassmen we may expect even better achievements in the future.

OPERETTA

Front Row:—Guy Farnsworth, Harold Bensinger, Paul Bell, Paul Fluke, Herbert Smith, Richard Lutz, Irving Wiley. Marjorie Clark and William Peck not in picture.

"Once in A Blue Moon," the operetta, given by the musical organization this year was quite modern. The plot was carried out by a very capable cast.

The cast for the operetta was composed of the girls' and boys' glee club with the accompaniment of the orchestra. The operetta was under the supervision of L. E. Pete, assisted by Mrs. DeVoe and Miss Thelma Slack.

THE TREASURE CHEST

The Annual Staff of 1930 has selected "Treasure Chest" as the name of this year's annual. It is the sincere hope and desire of the staff that this book may indeed prove to be a "Treasure Chest" to the students of Ashland High School. To our fanciful imagination, the name "treasure chest" expresses the thought of chests or storehouses for facts and pleasant memories to be recalled and cherished as very valuable treasures in later years. If this aim is accomplished in the presentation of this year's annual to the student body, the hopes and aspirations of the Annual Staff for 1930 will be fully realized.

The Annual Staff of 1930 wishes to express their sincere gratitude and appreciation to G. P. Gongwer, faculty adviser, for his interest, and supervision in the publication of "The Treasure Chest" of 1930.

NEWS STAFF

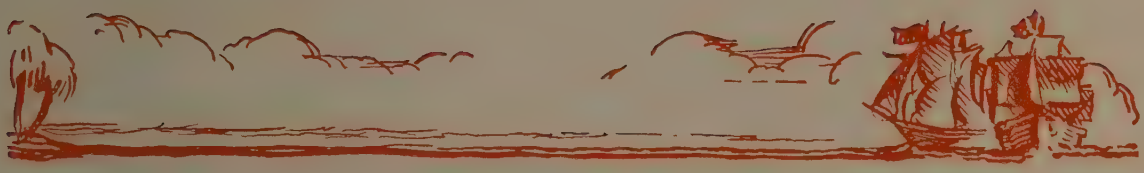
The News Staff of this school year has equalled in many ways the staffs of previous years. The deficiency of numbers was balanced by the tedious efforts of each member. The High School News Column in the city paper has, as in preceding years, furnished this year a high spot in news and entertainment for the public as well as the student-body. A different high school activity was assigned to each pupil who reported upon this phase for a definite length of time. At the end of this time assignments were exchanged, thus giving a variety of topics to each member through-out the year. Miss Florence Davidson has most successfully advised this group of students in this particular branch of student activity.



CLASS PROPHECY

"Now, Cecil, I'll run over this list and you copy them in that book, please. This census work is quite interesting, especially when you learn of friends and fellow classmates that you haven't seen for twenty years. Remember 'way back in 1930 when you and I were Seniors? Let's get started."

Harold Bensinger, president of Street Cleaners Association, single. Owns no property save a hot-dog stand in Lodi. Thelma Hoyt, married, house-wife, and has two children old enough to vote. Mary McConnell, actress, single. I saw her in the "Woman from Everywhere." I guess she has become quite famous with her dramatic acting. Glenn Watson, married, runs Fish Market. His wife, maiden name Alice Ludwick, runs the hotel on sixth street. No children and no telephone. Mary Schultz, single, matron. Kenneth Fish, operator and founder of Bigger Robings and Less Worms C., married, with six children old enough to hold the presidential office. Frances Butts, congress woman. I hear she has been lecturing and debating for weeks on the bill "A Home for Old Dogs Should Be Established in Every State." She is advocating another along the line of reading nursery rhymes to the prisoners before they retire.

Did you know that Gwendolyn Ogle, Marie Reed,and Ione Patrick are making a world tour speaking on subjects such as "How to Keep a Good Man Home"? And speaking of lectures, I hear Mildred Hoppes and Virginia Castor are at the North Pole now giving talks and shows on "What the Best Dressed Woman will Wear in June." Mildred speaks on "How to Apply Cosmetics without Getting Cold Cream on the Eye Brows." Max Esbenshade, missionary to Australia. Irving Wiley, Metropolitan Opera Singer. George Fluke, farmer, married. Wife's name, Ruth Carskaden. Jeanette Booth, telephone operator between Mars and Sullivan. Arlin Harmon, sea diver. I think he is after some kind of sea fish or food that will grow feathers on gold fish. James Barnes, chemist. Now experimenting on a fluid, which, when injected in the brain will give a complete knowledge of all grade subjects. Darl Hulit has taken Mr. Pete's place in the Music department in Ashland High. Elma Ballou has charge of singing in the Old Folk's Home and Walter Kerr is Drum Major in their band. Harold Reed is the second lone eagle of the sky. He has a job as traffic cop of the sky. Ted Brindle has gone quite daffy over science and is now studying the functions of the clouds. He has some theory that in future years every cloud will have both sides lined with silver.

Louise Bell and Kate Finley are in Hayesville teaching the farmers how to raise potatoes without that irregular top. Earl Bachmann and Fenton Wiltrout now give lessons in Geometry to all those interested. They have discovered a new route to the moon and a new way to Mars. Dorothy Mumaw and Dick Bear have started a school for the busy students and are teaching them the best way of studying without spending too much time on one book. Dorothy Kidd, with the aid of Morris Palmer, has been teaching her conception of a druid's dance. Rachel Reaser, who was always so interested in birds, flowers, etc., will soon be able to take Mr. Wander's place. She as yet has not married. Pat Welty, a great instructor in dramatics, is now teaching in Perrysville. Ned Donley, the expert diver, has just received his brass medal as life guard at Round Lake. Wylda Stewart is happily married to Bob Hootman, who is now directing the High School Band at Keener's Run. Helen Remy and Alma Warnes, who could be called the second Siamese Twins, are now touring the world, looking for present-day jobs.

Seems funny for everyone else to be so famous and here we are just census takers with nothing to do but see how famous everyone else we ever knew is. Anyway we have the memory of that class and the satisfaction of knowing there were brilliant minds in our midst. Imagine Majorie Clark, Gladys Denbow, Helen Louise Brown, and Dorothy Fearer in the Senate with the cares of this country on their shoulders. It is more than I can understand.

FOOTBALL

COACHING STAFF

Ashland High School is quite fortunate to have as her coaching staff some of the leading athletes of Ohio.

Sidney Boyd, director of athletics, is a former Muskingum star.

G. D. "Rosy" Starn, head football and basketball coach, a four sport man at Wooster was all-Ohio full-back in '22 and '24 at Wooster.

Wayne "Pete" Blough, head baseball coach and assistant in football and basketball, was all-Ohio quarter-back in '26 and '27 and all-Ohio forward in '27 at Wooster.

Ray Novotny, who has had charge of the track team, was all-Ohio half-back in 1929 at Ashland College.

Edward Avison, swimming coach, is a Wooster tank veteran of a few years back.

VARSITY FOOTBALL TEAM

Front Row: —McMillen, Herbert Smith, Richard Bear, Roberts, Harry Smith, Morgan, Bensinger.

Second Row:—Leiter, manager, Fluke, Rybolt, Wiley, Peck, Mathews.

Third Row:—Arnholt, Rankin, Robert Bear, Hulit.

The 1930 football season ended with four victories in nine games. The high point of the season was the defeat of Bucyrus 15-14. Bucyrus was the favorite, as they had not been beaten by Ashland in a grid game for fourteen years. Ashland played their best game of the season and deserved victory.

The team was handicapped to a certain extent throughout the latter part of the season by injuries. For this reason Coach Starn was forced to play some league games with a number of substitutes.

The prospects for the next year are rather bright. With nine letter men from this year, Coach Starn looks forward to a much better season next year.

Front Row:—Wasen, Donley, Carmoney, Barnes, Remy, Brown.

Second Row:—Morrison, assistant manager, Wander, Hesson, Newcomb, Dolby, Hulit, Wiltrout, manager.

Third Row:—Kirkpatrick, Campbell, Palmer, Thomas, Shank, Slocum.

The Junior Varsity played three games this year. The Mansfield Junior Varsity beat them 6-0 in the first game. The next two with Madison High were won by Ashland 6-0 and 25-6. Some members of the team will make a strong bid for the Varsity next year.

BASKETBALL

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Top Row:—Rader, Remy, manager, Mathews.

The basketball team this year won eight of nineteen games The team looked good in early season games, but seemed to loose their eye for the basket and dropped eight games in a row. The team really hit its stride in the Wooster game. The team was undefeated from then until the second round of the Cleveland Tournament when Holy Name beat them 29-19. Ashland should have a good team next year with four letter men and some excellent Junior Varsity material.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

First Row:—Keffer, Moore.

Second Row:—Peck, Melching, Campbell, Rankin, Morrison.

Top Row:—Bowsher Morganstern, Dolby, Brindle.

The Junior Varsity Basketball season was very successful. The team played seventeen games and lost only three. The team showed up exceptionally well and should provide some excellent Varsity material for next year.

GIRLS CLASS CHAMPIONS

Front Row—Gongwer, Patrick, Pion

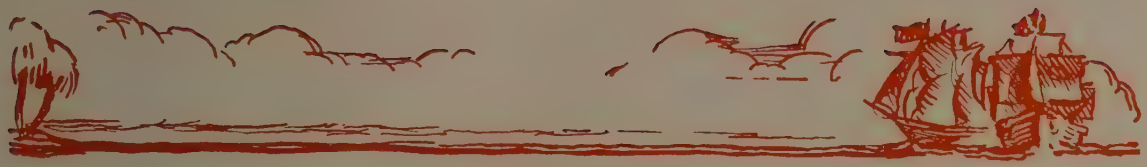
Second Row:—Duncan, Moore, Hoyt, Dockendorf

Third Row:—Jardine, Coach

The same class came out champions this year that were champions last year. You may be sure that the class deserves the honor they received for the games were hard fought. Three of the members of the team, namely, Mary Louise Moore, Erma Pion, and Iva Fae Duncan, had never played basketball before, but by cooperating with the old members of the team some fine team work and fast playing was put over.

Following are the scores of their games:

Senior	Sophomore	29–8
Senior	Junior	36–13
Senior	Freshmen	26–19
Senior	Sophomore	28–19
Senior	Junior	23–13
Senior	Freshmen	39–10



GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The different classes were well represented in basketball this year. One hundred four girls reported for practice. Of this number ninety-two played on color teams.

There were nine color teams. Of these the red and green teams of which Thelma Hoyt and Ione Patrick were captains, reached the finals. The green team came out victorious with a score of 19–18.

A losers tournament was also conducted. The orange team with Edith Dockendorf, as captain, came out with the honors in this division.

The class teams this year were represented by fifty-nine players. Of these the Freshmen, Sophomores and Juniors had second teams. The senior class team won the Championship, with the Freshmen taking second place. Of the second teams, the Freshmen were victorious. Those who remain out all season for color teams, class teams, and play more than half the total number of quarters in the first team class games will receive insignias. There are twenty-three girls who will receive this honor this year.

Ninety girls from the Junior high reported for basketball. Nine home rooms were represented by a team. The 8A2 team captained by Frances Williams won the championship by coming out victors in five out of six games. Girls from the Junior and Senior classes refereed these games.

For Volley Ball and Basketball the teams were organized on a class basis. The two latter games and tennis occupy after school hours in the spring season.

SPRING ATHLETICS

SWIMMING TEAM

Front Row:—Riebel, Liston, Downs.

Second Row:—Donley, Avison, coach, Henderson, Fluke.

Top Row:—Koehl, Powell, Suter.

The swimming team held five meets this year. Although all of them resulted in defeat the team made a good showing in each one. George Fluke broke the Ashland High School records for the 50, 100, and 220 free style events.

BASEBALL

Second Row:—Barnes, Morrison, Slocum, Fox, Wiley.

Back Row:—Rader, Thomas, Rybolt, Lutz.

The Baseball team played an eight game schedule. Two games were played with Danville, Loudonville, Fremont, and Wellington. The team also was entered in the district tournament held at Canton. In addition the annual clash between the varsity and the faculty was held.

TRACK

Front Row:—Ralph Suter, John Mathews, William McDaniel, Edwin McKellar, William Peck, Arthur Newcomb.

Second Row:—Earl Thomas, Harold Bensinger, Paul Remy, Robert Morr, Raymond Norris, Dennis Henderson, Robert Melching.

The track team this year was handicapped by the lack of veteran material and the late start because of inclement weather.

The schedule included a triangular meet between Shelby, Plymouth and Ashland, the Mansfield Relays, a dual meet with Mansfield, a dual meet with Shelby and dual meets with Wooster here and at Wooster.

The squad was in charge of Ray Novotny, Ashland College speed merchant and all-Ohio half-back last fall.

ADVERTISEMENTS

OBERLIN SCHOOL OF COMMERCE

The Oberlin School of Commerce has come to be recognized as one of the leading schools of business training in the entire country. It admits only high school graduates and offers advanced courses of training. Its graduates are holding fine positions all over the country. Many are drawing salaries for $5000 to $10,000 a year, while some are millionaires.

Any Seniors interested in advanced courses of business training would have unusual opportunities at Oberlin, where they would study with others of their own age and education, where they would not be held back in classes with many who have had little or no high school training.

It has been under its present management for nearly 50 years—one of the old, strong, well-equipped, successful schools of business training. Its courses of training are far beyond the business college stage.

"May I kiss you?" he whispered.
She pouted, "Oh! Morris, please don't muss my hair."
Nevertheless Morris kept right on, on the ground that if he mussed, he must.

Miss Mason:—"Dick, why are you tardy?"
Dick L.:—"Class started before I got here."

Mr. Gongwer:—"What is the child Welfare Movement?"
Betty H.:—"Children's Exercise."

Miss Harmon:—You and your sister are twins, aren't you?
Bob Weil:—We used to be, but now she's five years younger than I am.

ASHLAND, OHIO

He owned a handsome touring car,
To ride in it was heaven
He ran across a piece of glass,
Bill $14.97.
He took his friends out for a ride,
'Twas good to be alive,
The carburetor sprung a leak,
Bill $90.95.
He started on a little tour
The finest sort of fun,
He stopped too quick and ripped his gears,
Bill $40.51.
He took his wife downtown to shop,
To save carfare was great,
He jammed into a hitching post,
Bill $278.
He spent his little piles of cash,
And then in anguish cried,
"I'll put a mortgage on my home,
And take just one more ride."

Bob M.:—I kissed her when she wasn't looking.

Shine:—Then what did she do?

Bob M.:—She kept her eyes closed all evening.

Harold R. (at pageant):—"Give me two seats in "L".

ASHLAND COLLEGE

ASHLAND, OHIO

Co-educational Founded 1878

Ashland College offers courses as follows: Arts and Sciences, Divinity, Four Year Education, Two Year Education, Music,—Piano, Voice, Violin,—and Expression.

ATHLETICS

During the past three years, since Fred Schmuck has been Coach, Ashland won 42 games in Basketball and lost 13; in Football, won 17 and lost 6; the last two years, won 13 and lost 7 in Baseball; total won 73, lost 27,—a record unsurpassed in Ohio.

All courses are fully accredited by the State Department of Public Instruction of Ohio.
ASHLAND COLLEGE IS A MEMBER OF THE NORTH CENTRAL ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGES AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS.

Ashland College is especially interested in having graduates of Ashland High School attend their home college.

More than 40% of the Faculty with the earned Doctor's degree, a most unusual ratio. Expenses moderate.

"What is a grand slam in bridge?
When your partner says, "You haven't played much before have you?"

Then there is the Scotchman who took out fire insurance on his cigars.

"When in Rome did you do as the Romans do?"
"No, my wife was with me."

Dick B.:—Aren't you afraid to go to bed?
Pat:—No, why?
Dick B.:—More people die in bed than anywhere else.

Jeanette B.:—Do you tickle the ivories?
Maxine A.:—No, I'm afraid of elephants.

Mrs. Todd—What is the advantage of married life?

Mildred H.—How do we know?

Mrs. Todd—According to Bacon.

Mildred H.—Whether it is burnt or not.

"Can you beat it?" said the old lady as she handed her husband a dirty carpet. "Well, I never!" he answered as he handed it back.

When you propose to a girl be sure to tell her that you aren't good enough for her before she beats you to it.

Psychologists say that anyone who falls in love with a statue or a picture shows signs of insanity. Perhaps this explains the reason why so many girls fall in love with Rudy Vallee.

Life is short, only four letters in it; three quarters of it is a lie, and one half of it is an if.

Paul L.:—Oh, heck, give me a tuba tooth paste.

Bob B.:—Why do you suppose Jean left the party?
John M.:—I don't know. She told us she was going for good.

We heard that one of the seniors who was going to have his picture taken for the Treasure Chest, only had one side of his suit pressed as he was having a profile taken.

"To B or not to be" said the student who had to make an eighty or drop the course.

Ione P.:—Do you believe in capital punishment?
Harold B.:—'Tain't good enough for the criminals. They ought to be hung.

Hotel Otter

Mrs. Todd:—And who made the first cotton gin?

Kate N.:—Heavens! are they making it out of that too?

The weighing machine was out of order. A fat lady clambered on and inserted a penny. An inebriated gentleman standing in the vicinity saw the scale register 75 pounds. "My gosh," he whispered, "she's hollow."

Said the Scotchman after saving a man from drowning, "That's all right, mon, I was only thinkin' of the funeral expenses."

Earl Yeater:—Why do you eat with your knife?

Fenton W.:—Because I'm hungry.

M. L. Moore:—Do you ever exercise with dumbells?

Ted B.:—Thanks but I have this dance.

There are two classes of pedestrians: the quick and the dead.

There are also two types of teachers: the dead and the buried.

Glad D.:—Do you play checkers?
